

Creating a digital download account

As long as you have the original email, you can access your digital download from that email. If you would like to see a list of all the downloads purchased follow the customer creation process by

1. Access one of your purchased downloads via the email sent to you.
2. On the file download screen, click on your email link (upper right corner of the download page). This will start the account creation process.
3. Claim your account and set up a password.

The screenshot shows a web interface for a digital download. At the top right, the user's email address "paul@sendowl.com" is displayed next to a person icon. Below this is a blue header with the text "File Download". The main content area features a product card for "Awesome Digital Product" with a "Love You!" owl icon and "3 downloads remaining". A "Download" button is positioned to the right of the product card. Below the product card is a dashed line, followed by a "Save to Dropbox" button. At the bottom, it says "Powered by SendOwl" with the SendOwl owl logo. A large red arrow points from the bottom right towards the email address "paul@sendowl.com" in the top right corner.
